This week the luxe Lorien Hotel played host to Alexandria's Old Town Boutique District's get-together and campaign for "Shop Local Alexandria". Darling girls in darling dresses from the best boutiques in town gathered to bond over nibbles and sips.

Brabo Tasting Room in the hotel's complex served "Napa"tizers and delicious charcuterie to compliment the wine and fresh lemonade. Alexandria confectionary, The Sugar Cube, brought their Red Velvet Devil Dogs, Lemon Almond and Chocolate Peanut Butter Whoopie Pies, that were downed faster than you can say, "Let's

JORDAN'S GREAT EPICUREAN ESCAPES

A Visit to the New Richmond

Brunch at The Jefferson Hotel in its magnificent columned Rotunda, where ceilings soar to seventy feet, is an over-the-top event. Guests come from miles around to enjoy the finest gourmet Southern cuisine and this spring I wrote glowingly about my experience.

Recently I returned to The Jefferson eager to revisit this splendid property, replete with Tiffany glass ceilings and sweeping Scarlett O'Hara staircases, and to stay where luminaries like Elvis and F. Scott Fitzgerald; actors Morgan Freeman, Sarah Bernhardt and shop!"
